employed by the Terminal Railway Associarun over and killed by Laclede avenue car run over and killed by Laclede avenue car No. 2059 at Twenty-second and Market streets yesterday morning at 6:39. Forrest's body lay at the morgue for about two hours before it was identified.

The car dragged Forrest nearly half a block before it could be stopped. His death is attributed to the fact that he had his cap down over his ears and did not hear the bell on the car that struck him. The car was going east and Forrest stood on the track watching a car that was westbound. The car was in charge of Motorman T. L. Anderson and Conductor Fred Austin. Anderson stated that he thought Forrest was Angerson and Conductor Fred Austin. Anderson stated that he thought Forrest was going to get out of the way and believed that he heard the gong. The motorman and conductor were not arrested. City Detective John McCarthy, Robert Marshall, No. 209 South Leffingwell avenue, and Ernest Saunders of No. 3438 Laclede avenue, were among the witnesses.

Goode avenue. In a coop in his back yard
he kept about twenty chickens.
When the weather grew colder last week
Mr. Lubey decided to keep the chickens warm by placing an oil stove in the coop.
It worked all right until Sunday night, when it exploded, setting fire to the shed and chickens. Mr. Lubey estimates his loss at 375. The fire spread to the shed in the rear of Charles Font's home at No. 1815 Goode avenue, causing damage of $55. Policeman Reel discovered the fire, but arrived on the scene too late to rescue the chickens.
